The figure consists of two side-by-side line graphs. Both graphs have 'Rate of reaction' on the y-axis and 'Temperature' on the x-axis. The left graph shows a bell-shaped curve that starts at a low rate at 10°C, rises to a peak at 30°C, and then falls at 40°C. The right graph shows a curve that starts at a low rate at 10°C, rises steeply to a peak at 30°C, and then levels off at 40°C.

Thai floods continue to haunt PH auto business

By Charles J. Wilson

PHILIPPIAN (AP) — The floodwaters that have inundated the Philippines since late June have caused significant damage to the country's automotive industry, according to industry officials. The flooding has disrupted supply chains and damaged manufacturing facilities, leading to a decline in vehicle production and sales. Many dealerships have reported a significant drop in customer footfall, and some have been forced to temporarily close their operations. The situation is expected to worsen as the rainy season continues, with more heavy rainfall forecasted for the coming weeks.

Volvo plays key role in smart charging concept for electric cars

Volvo has announced a new smart charging concept for electric vehicles, aimed at optimizing energy usage and reducing costs. The concept involves a network of smart charging stations that can communicate with the vehicle's battery management system. This allows the vehicle to charge more efficiently, taking advantage of off-peak electricity rates and avoiding grid congestion. The system is designed to be user-friendly, with a mobile app that provides real-time information on charging status and costs. Volvo is currently testing the concept in several locations and expects to launch it commercially in the near future.

Volvo's smart charging concept is a key part of the company's commitment to sustainable transportation. By integrating smart charging technology into its electric vehicle lineup, Volvo aims to make EV ownership more convenient and cost-effective for consumers. The company is also exploring other innovative solutions to address the challenges of electric mobility, such as battery swapping and vehicle-to-grid (V2G) technology. Volvo's leadership in smart charging technology is expected to set a new standard for the industry.

New concept in taxi service emerges in PH

By Charles B. Baker

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — A new concept in taxi service is emerging in the Philippines, as a group of young entrepreneurs has launched a service that combines the convenience of a taxi with the flexibility of a car-sharing program.

The service, called "TaxiShare," is based in Manila and is the brainchild of a group of young entrepreneurs who are looking for ways to improve the taxi industry in the Philippines.

The service is designed to provide a more efficient and cost-effective way to get around the city. It allows users to book a taxi through a mobile app, and the taxi is then dispatched to their location. The service is also designed to be more flexible than traditional taxis, as it allows users to book a taxi for a specific duration of time, rather than for a specific trip.

The service is currently only available in Manila, but the entrepreneurs plan to expand it to other cities in the Philippines in the near future. They believe that the service will be a major improvement over the traditional taxi industry, and they are confident that it will be a success.

lack of imagination

SOME OF THE REASONS WHY THE PHILIPPINE TAXI INDUSTRY IS NOT AS SUCCESSFUL AS IT COULD BE IS DUE TO A LACK OF IMAGINATION. THE INDUSTRY IS OLD-FASHIONED AND DOES NOT TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE LATEST TECHNOLOGY. THIS HAS RESULTED IN A SERVICE THAT IS NOT AS ATTRACTIVE AS IT COULD BE.

THE PHILIPPINE TAXI INDUSTRY IS ONE OF THE OLDEST IN THE WORLD. IT HAS BEEN AROUND FOR HUNDREDS OF YEARS, AND IT HAS NOT CHANGED MUCH SINCE THEN. THE SERVICE IS OLD-FASHIONED AND DOES NOT TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE LATEST TECHNOLOGY. THIS HAS RESULTED IN A SERVICE THAT IS NOT AS ATTRACTIVE AS IT COULD BE.

Keeping safe in the bedroom

ALL ABOUT CHILDREN'S SAFETY IN THE BEDROOM. The bedroom is a place where children spend a lot of time, and it's important to make sure it's a safe place. Here are some tips to help you keep your child safe in the bedroom.

What to appraise in the bedroom: When you're appraising the bedroom, look for things that could be dangerous. Check for tripping hazards, like toys or clutter on the floor. Make sure the bed is sturdy and that the mattress is in good condition. Check for fire hazards, like candles or space heaters. Make sure there are no exposed wires or electrical outlets that your child could reach.

Tip 1: Check for tripping hazards. Toys and clutter on the floor can be a tripping hazard. Make sure the floor is clear of anything that could cause your child to fall. If you have a rug, make sure it's secured to the floor so it doesn't slip.

Tip 2: Check for fire hazards. Candles and space heaters can be a fire hazard. Make sure there are no candles in the bedroom. If you have a space heater, make sure it's in good condition and that it's not too close to anything flammable. Make sure there are no exposed wires or electrical outlets that your child could reach.
